

Dulles Resignation Report Termed 'Untrue'

April 20
'Set' for Decision

WASHINGTON (UPI) — White House Press Secretary James C. Hagerty today termed untrue and "irresponsible" a CBS radio report that President Eisenhower has accepted the resignation of acting Secretary of State John Foster Dulles.

The report, by CBS correspondent Dan Schorr, was attributed to sources in Europe "believed to be reliable."

HAGERTY SUMMONED newsmen to announce that he had called Theodore F. Koop, CBS official in Washington, and "demanded that they (CBS) correct this statement on their network."

"It's about as low a form of reporting as I know of to quote 'reliable European sources' on such reports," he said. "This is about as irresponsible reporting as I know of. This is not true."

John Day, director of CBS news, said in New York, "We are very sure of our sources."

HE SAID THE information came from "high official quarters abroad" and added "We are very sure we know what we're talking about."

Earlier, the CBS report had been "categorically" denied by the State Department.

Reliable sources told United Press International that Dulles, now recuperating in Florida from abdominal cancer, probably will decide by April 20 whether he feels able to resume his duties. The date is three weeks before the scheduled opening of the Geneva meeting of foreign ministers on the east coast of Florida.

DULLES IS RESTING at the home of Undersecretary of State C. Douglas Dillon at Hobe Sound, the east coast of Florida.

A spokesman for Dulles said at Hobe Sound there was "no basis of fact" in the report of his resignation, attributed by CBS Radio to sources in Europe "believed to be reliable."

New pressure for a speedy decision on Dulles' status was brought by Sen. Hubert Humphrey (D-Minn.), who told a news conference at Oak Ridge, Tenn., that the decision should be made by President Eisenhower, not Dulles.

"IT IS THE DUTY of the President, even though distasteful, to make the decision, and it is imperative that he make it soon," Humphrey said. He said the United States "can't go to the foreign ministers' conference with undersecretaries of state. You must have a man with both authority and experience."

Associates said Dulles, who went south a week ago, planned to give himself two weeks longer in the sun before making a final decision on his future activities.

Some of his friends here believe he will make every effort to lead the American delegation to the Geneva conference scheduled to begin May 11.

They are hopeful he will be able to participate in final Allied strategy decisions before the show-down meeting with the Soviets on Berlin and Germany.

Dalai Lama Off To India Interior

NEW DELHI (UPI) — The Dalai Lama has left Towang and started for Bomdila to put more distance between himself and the Communist Chinese occupation army in Tibet, official sources reported today.

The sources said the 70-mile trip to Bomdila was expected to take at least five days—more if the 25-year-old Dalai Lama and his 80-member troupe stop to rest along the way.

P. M. Menon, a special Indian government emissary, arrived at Shillong from New Delhi en route to meet the refugee Tibetan godking.

FORMER MET STARS PREP OPERA SOLOS FOR RECITAL HERE

The concert is the final presentation of the season for the Palm Springs Community Concert Association.

The Conner-Conley program, announced today by the CAA, will also include three operatic duets, one from Donizetti's "Lucia de Lammermoor," another from Bizet's "Carmen," and the third from Puccini's "Madama Butterfly."

Other operatic selections will feature works by Gounod, Haendel and Dvorak. Songs will include efforts by Haendel, Canteleone, Grieg, Rachmaninoff and Conley-Frank.

Jobless Total Drops 387,000 in March; 64-Millions Reported Working in Nation

Promoters Drop $4,000 On Fights

Not Discouraged On Attempting Another in Future

The first card of professional boxing in Palm Springs history cost the three promoters of the bouts nearly $4,000. L. H. Strong, one of the trio, revealed here this morning.

Strong said that the fights grossed $8,010.70 but that expenses — totaling $11,908.68 so far — put the fight venture $3,897.98 in the red.

"There may be more expenses," Strong said. "We haven't been billed for the tickets yet."

NEITHER THE building fund of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints or the charities of the Desert Circus Association will receive any monies from the fights, Strong said, but neither will they lose.

"The three of us — Dupler, Jones and myself — will sustain the losses," Strong said. All three are Utah businessmen. Joe Dupler is a Salt Lake furrier. Dr. John G. Jones is a Provo dentist and Strong is a Salt Lake automobile dealer.

STRONG SAID that the three had profited from the experience and said that the loss of Gene Fullmer — who injured his hand after being signed for the main event on the card — had been the worst blow of the experience. He said that difficulties with Hollywood Legion promoters and with some other fighters sought for the bill here had also been "costly to us."

Strong said that "with some changes" the threesome would probably be willing to try another fight card here.

"It was costly," he said. "But the fights were great."

Oklahoma Votes On Prohibition

OKLAHOMA CITY — (UPI) — The wets and the dries, with clergy members sounding the battlecry, marched to the polls today to decide the battle of prohibition.

A record turnout was predicted for the election, the seventh in Oklahoma's dry, 51-year history as a state.

Protestant ministers led the dries, quoting the Bible, while the Roman Catholic bishop lined up on the side of the wets, who also employed Abraham Lincoln and Will Rogers.

Andrea Entry Wins

A glittering white "moon rocket," surrounded by snappy, black-clad spacegirls, won the 23rd annual Desert Circus Parade's Sweepstakes Award for Andrea of Palm Springs.

Parade Chairman Mac McDonald said the rocket salute to Colorado, entered by Andrea Leeds Howard, captured the top award for what was today hailed as the largest, most successful parade ever staged here.

THOUSANDS of cheering resort residents turned out Saturday morning to view the 134 entries lined up in a Desert Circus caravan that stretched along two miles of Palm Canyon Drive for more than two hours.

Theme for the parade was a "Salute to Colorado," and it featured Colorado Gov. Steve McNichols and California Gov. Edmund G. Brown as its honored grand marshals.

McDonald announced the parade winners today with a special offering of commendations to his assistant, Warren Coble, and the Palm Springs Mounted Police, which divided its members among the various parade divisions to insure a steady, continuous flow of traffic in the "biggest parade ever."

HE ALSO directed thanks to "everyone who had anything to do with the parade."

Winners of the various categories were listed as follows:

Niven, Susan Hayward Cop Top 'Oscars'

'Gigi' Gains Most Awards as Police Check Bomb Threat

HOLLYWOOD — (UPI) — Flame-haired Susan Hayward and suave David Niven, two veterans of movie making, reigned today as the best actress and actor of 1958.

Miss Hayward, 39, a four-time loser, was honored for her performance in "I Want to Live" by the Motion Picture Academy of Arts and Sciences at its 31st annual Academy Awards presentation Monday night while a real-life drama quietly unfolded at the theater as police checked out a false bomb threat.

NIVEN, 49, WAS honored for his role in "Separate Tables." "Gigi," a technicolor musical based on the novel by Franch Colette, was named the best film and garnered nine Oscars.

One honorary award put the awards bestowed on "Gigi" at 10 to place it in a tie with all-time award winner "Gone With the Wind" in 1939. The "Best Years of Our Lives" won nine awards in 1946.

BURL IVES, folksinger-turned-actor, was named best supporting actor for his role in "The Big Country" and England's Wendy Hiller was voted best supporting actress for her portrayal in "Separate Tables."

Vincente Minnelli won a golden statuette for his direction of "Gigi."

The song "Gigi" from the picture of the same name also captured an Oscar, as did the film's musical scoring by Andre Previn and its screen play as based on material from another medium by Alan Jay Lerner.

"Gigi" also won Oscars in the categories of art direction, costume design, film editing and cinematography.

Skate Returns From North Pole

NEW LONDON, Conn. — (UPI) — The nuclear-powered U.S. submarine Skate returns today from the North Pole where, on March 17, she broke through the ice pack of the Arctic and surfaced at the North Pole.

An enthusiastic welcome awaited the Skate's skipper, Cmdr. James F. Calvert, and his crew of 106 as the submarine returns to her home berth.

Rest Home Fire Kills Aged Man

BRANCHVILLE, N. J. — (UPI) — Fire broke out in a rest home for the aged Monday night, killing one man and injuring another.

DEFENSE ATTORNEY David McGahey said the Moulton "caper" was the latest round in a child custody battle dating back to 1955, when the Raeses were divorced in a Miami, Fla., court.

McGahey said Mrs. Kelly, who has since re-married, was granted custody of the boys but Raese had "summer vacation" privileges three months a year.

Nugent said a Monongalia County, W. Va., court later made Raese guardian of the three children, after he had taken them for "vacation."

THAT SPARKED a series of subsequent court actions in West Virginia and Florida, and latest resulting in Florida Circuit Court decrees awarding Mrs. Kelly sole custody of the children and sentencing Raese to six months in jail for contempt of court, Nugent reported.

Moulton, who said he generally operates in Beverly Hills and San Jose, said Mrs. Kelly showed him the court order when she hired him. Police were never able to locate the woman.

Moulton and Kelly, a railroad conductor who was "just helping out," allegedly grabbed young Richard and John while they were playing outside their father's Village vacation home. David managed to elude his captors.

EX-PRESIDENT HARRY S. TRUMAN arrived in Palm Springs Sunday for the day and was greeted at the airport by a host of villagers. Pictured above with Chief of Police August G. Kettmann (shaking hands with Mr. Truman) are Mayor Frank Bogert, Phil Regan and Mon Wallgren, who arrived with the ex-president on the private plane. ## Drive Projects Planned Under 3-Step Program

After more than two years of planning and investigation into the possible widening and improvement of North Palm Canyon Drive, the Palm Canyon Drive Association has initiated steps to secure rights-of-ways for the project.

A meeting of the association brought to light the facts that an assessment district could be formed for the installation of curbs and gutters and sidewalks; the state would pave the street to the new curbs, and a bond issue could go to the people for the planting of palm trees from Alejo north.

The area of the new improvement will be from Alejo to the old city gates, but the association is planning on securing the rights-of-way from Alejo to Stevens Road as the first part of the project.

CHILD STEALING CHARGE DROPPED

Child stealing charges against private detective Roy Graham Moulton and his assistant were dismissed yesterday when the children they were accused of stealing failed to appear in court.

Deputy District Attorney Leighton Nugent said that West Virginia steel executive Richard Raese and sons Richard Jr., 10, John, 8, and David, 6, have apparently left the state.

Speeder, Pals Jailed After 80-MPH Chase

An 80-mile-an-hour chase through city streets ended at midnight last night with the speeder in custody, two of his friends in jail for interfering with the duties of police officers, and a police car in the city garage badly damaged.

Police officer William Manger pursued a speeding vehicle being driven by George Hall, 22, about midnight last night from Vista Chino, down Indian Avenue to the Plaza, and as he stopped to talk to the speeder, the suspect took off again.

AT THE INTERSECTION of El Segundo and Sage, Hall put on his brakes and as Manger started to come up on the right side of the car, Hall turned in front of him causing the officer to run into the left rear of the car.

Hall took off again, but was stopped very quickly by Sgt. T. M. Aitken, who had joined in the pursuit at the Plaza.

AT THE TIME of Hall's arrest, two friends, a 17-year-old juvenile and Billy Joe Pellum, 20, reportedly attempted to come to Hall's aid, and were arrested for interference with the duties of police.

Adenauer to Quit As Chancellor, Seek Presidency

BONN, Germany — (UPI) — Chancellor Konrad Adenauer has accepted the nomination of his Christian Democratic Union for the presidency of West Germany, it was officially announced today.

Eugen Gerstenmaier, president of the lower house of Parliament and a deputy chairman of the CDU, said Adenauer was nominated unanimously by a 69-member party committee this morning.

Adenauer accepted the nomination immediately, Gerstenmaier said.

The decision to run by the 83-year-old West German leader, symbol of his country's massive post-war recovery, means he will have to give up the post of chancellor he has held for the past 10 years.

'NEW AMERICAN' TO BE PRESENTED TWICE BY MRA HERE

"The New American," a drama of American Life "with humor and reality," will be presented twice here this week by Moral Re-Armament, it was announced today.

First performance, open to the public, will be presented at 8 p.m. tonight, in the Palm Springs High School Auditorium. An assembly presentation, compulsory for Palm Springs High School students, will be given tomorrow afternoon, also in the auditorium.

Tonight's program will feature the international chorus of Moral Re-Armament in a song festival prior to the play. The play itself concerns a group of youthful Americans who meet challenges of everyday life in "a spiritual way."

There is no admission charge for the performance.

CHIL STEALING CHARGE DROPPED

Child stealing charges against private detective Roy Graham Moulton and his assistant were dismissed yesterday when the children they were accused of stealing failed to appear in court.

Deputy District Attorney Leighton Nugent said that West Virginia steel executive Richard Raese and sons Richard Jr., 10, John, 8, and David, 6, have apparently left the state.

NUGENT, WITH NO witnesses to support the charges, requested a dismissal from Justice Court Judge Eugene Threiaue when court convened for preliminary hearing yesterday morning.

The 49-year-old detective, known as "I Spy" Moulton, and Charles Lewis, 33, of Warm Springs, were charged with stealing Richard Jr. and John Raese from their father's rented home here on March 29.

Moulton claimed he was offered $5,000 by Raese's former wife, Mrs. Jane Greer Kelly, to spirit the youngsters away from their father and turn them over to her.

DEFENSE ATTORNEY David McGahey said the Moulton "caper" was the latest round in a child custody battle dating back to 1955, when the Raeses were divorced in a Miami, Fla., court.

McGahey said Mrs. Kelly, who has since re-married, was granted custody of the boys but Raese had "summer vacation" privileges three months a year.

Moulton and Kelly, a railroad conductor who was "just helping out," allegedly grabbed young Richard and John while they were playing outside their father's Village vacation home. David managed to elude his captors.

BUT THE BOYS' screams attracted residents attending a nearby party and a subsequent, high-speed chase ended at a road-blocking traffic accident a few minutes later.

"DOWN THE ROAD"

Orchestra, with guest conductor Arturo Basile on the podium, treated three more or less standard symphonic selections with deep feeling and high caliber ability in the Palm Springs Playhouse Guild's annual presentation here Sunday.

The orchestra performed Rossini's Overture to "The Thieving Magpie," Respighi's "Fountains of Rome" and Tchaikovsky's "Pathétique" Symphony.

TRITE, OVERWORKED, hackneyed are the words that usually describe the "Pathétique." It has been done and then done again—and then done again—by almost every orchestra extant. It is admittedly a beautiful work, the most mature expression (with the possible exception of "Romeo and Juliet") that Tchaikovsky penned. Most of the beauty and most of the maturity were captured by the Los Angeles orchestra.

The first movement—which contains the exceptionally popular "Story of a Starry Night" theme—was a workmanlike segment as interpreted by Basile and the orchestra. A beautifully clear and articulate reading of the poignant bassoon voice was prominent and re-statements, in varying degrees of emotional depth, of the main theme were rendered with superb touch by the string choirs.

IN THE SECOND movement, a waltz theme—bound tightly after its initial statement by tympani—denies any terpsichorean urges. The idea of a waltz is given a satiric effect with ridicule piling up by virtue of the nostalgia-filled overtones of the first theme. It seemed in some segments of this movement the orchestra gave way to an artificiality of sound, an almost "by rote" presentation. The third movement, with its strident march theme—which has also gained some amount of notoriety through its use as a theme on a radio or TV show, I forget which—is the superb satire of the entire work, gibbing at the inconsequentiality of man's small triumphs. The movement ends with such vitality that the audience applause which followed was understandable if inexcusable.

TCHAIKOVSKY'S programming of the third movement—preceding, as it does, the complete fertility, the utter folly of man's existence exemplified in the fourth movement—has furnished fodder for critics since its premiere in October of 1893 at St. Petersburg—just nine days before the composer's choleric death.

Some of that woe, that grief, that lamentation was captured by the Philharmonic Orchestra Sunday. But some of it was left to the individual to ferret out. (In the definitive recording by Toscanini and the NBC Radio Orchestra—there is no mistaking the demise of the soul that Tchaikovsky delineates.)

Basile showed to good advantage the operatic techniques he possesses in the first half of the Sunday night program.

HE LAUNCHED THE evening with an inspiring and revealing interpretation of Rossini's Overture to "The Thieving Magpie" which caught a great deal more of the dramatic flavor of this work than this listener has heretofore heard in any of the over-numerous presentations of the work.

The Respighi work also allowed leeway for the conductor and he took full advantage of it. The "Fountains of Rome" took on a sweetly-flowing, beauty-attended fullness that also was somewhat of a departure. Senior Basile did the four fountains in rapid-fire order—without the customary pause between each of the segments—and gained, I believe, a unity of thought while still maintaining specific separateness musically.

The audience, except for the single breakthrough in the "Pathétique" was well-mannered and was actually seated before the concert began. It may mark the dawn of a new era.

The National Bureau of Standards has designed a "glossometer" that could accurately measure the shininess of a woman's nose although its real purpose is to assure a uniform gleam in the porcelain enamel on refrigerators and other appliances.

FAVORITE FUNNYMAN for night club audiences for years has been Paul Gilbert, current at Chi Chi Starlite Room. Gilbert has been Chi Chi feature for seven years. Also featured are Patrice Wymore, the Wendanys and the Bill Alexander Chi Chi Orchestra.

PAUL GILBERT IS TOP ENTERTAINER

For almost a couple of decades now, Paul Gilbert's idea of what items on the American scene are funny have been ripping audiences apart.

It's the same old Gilbert—with some sparkling new material—that does just that to Chi Chi Starlite Room audiences currently and through Wednesday night.

THE ROUTINES, "My Funny Valentine," "Saints Go Marching In" and the funniest drunk act—next to Joe E. Lewis, who does his for real—ever seen, are uniformly great, but the quips are what makes Gilbert the solid draw he is.

At Vegas, he captures the Vegas scene. In Los Angeles, he fuses with that environment. Here, he dug into the heart of Palm Springs Samples:

"No matter how hot it gets here, there's still hell to do at night."

"I'VE BEEN COMING here for seven years for arthritis and I finally got it."

"I've been coming to Chi Chi for seven years now and even before that—back when it was only a 76 station."

He sells songs like he sells the gas, but the large supper crowd Sunday didn't have to hear songs. They warmed up to the Gilbert wit faster than you could say "cover charge."

ALSO ON THE CURRENT Chi Chi bill with Gilbert are the Bill Alexander Orchestra, a gymnastic act called the Wendanys and Errol Flynn's well-proportioned spouse, Patrice Wymore.

Patrice, one of the prettier red-heads in show business, wears a couple of very fetching costumes has good stage presence and would profit from any additional vocal training she might pick up.

BEST TUNES SHE attempted were "Don't Take Your Love From Me" and an English folk ballad called "Scarlet Ribbons." Worst were two Gershwin things—"I Got Porgy" and "It Ain't Necessarily So." The latter was done complete with "up-to-date" vocal that singled out Bardot, Presley, Mansfield and Gabor Zsa Zsa, of course for some catlike criticisms. It might be considered cute in some quarters but this reviewer found Patrice's "satire" in bad taste. —G.L.

Students Urged To Prepare for Future by Saund

Congressman Dalip Saund told members of the Palm Springs High School student body that they can have a vital role in the shaping of tomorrow's world if they prepare themselves for that job now.

The 29th District representative made the statement during an address delivered this week before a student assembly.

Saund selected Palm Springs High School and El Centro High School as the two schools in this area which he wished to address.

NORTH PALM SPRINGS

By ORPHA GEIER

A recent weekend was a jolly one at the Joe Kelly ranch, when a large group gathered for a belated St. Patrick's celebration. A buffet dinner, music and ballad singing were enjoyed by the following: Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kane, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brannigan, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Connor, Mr. and Mrs. John McIntyre, Mr. and Mrs. Gerard Hughes, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Holtz, Mr. and Mrs. George Chris, and Mrs. Mary Chris, all of Santa Monica; Mr. and Mrs. John O'Leary of San Diego, Margaret Stein, Frank Colebery and Bill Rahming of North Palm Springs.

Gerry Hughes entertained with his Irish bag pipes. The Brannigans and Connors own desert homes here and are here often.

Little Vivien Lee Geier of Ontario came out for a vacation on the desert at the home of her grandmother. On Sunday her parents Darrell and Carol Geier drove out for the day and Vivien returned home with them.

Sid and Ann Lee left Tuesday morning for a few days business and pleasure trip to Las Vegas.

Open house at the Club Hoopo was well attended by well wishers from Palm Springs, North Palm Springs, and Desert Hot Springs. Among those offering congratulations to Bobby Garcia on his new venture were Mr. and Mrs. Dave Margolis, Bob Miner and Mrs. Minor. The club is now in operation.

Teed and Jackie Sam of Covina spent the week with their grandmother, Hilda Carnahan at her Tramvue Ranch trailer home.

Weekend guests of Sid and Ann Lee included Patti and Paul Shaw from Twentynine Palms and old time friends, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Powell from Long Beach, whom they hadn't seen for ten years.

Dick and Jackie Sizelove left Friday for Miami, Fla., on a business and pleasure trip. They will return in about one month, and Dick will be back on the job to take care of upholstering needs at 66-299 West 3rd Street in Desert Hot Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Berner spent the weekend here with their daughter and son-in-law, Kay and Ed Hamm. The Berners have a home here but are presently residing in South Gate.

Bertha Reynolds of Montebello was out for a week on the desert visiting her friends, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hildt, guests at Lesters' Big Wagon Ranch on Dillon Road. Mr. Hildt came here for the benefits of our climate and hot mineral pools and is now able to walk and work again.

Irving and Virginia Raphael, recently of Plymouth Landing, Pa., are now residents of North Palm Springs. Mr. Raphael is employed at Chi Chi in Palm Springs.

Weekend guests of Kenny and Ruby Gunn were Ruby's father and mother, Lester and Mae Blackwelder, Dolly Rhodes and son, Dennis and Ted Schneider, a friend from Monrovia, Mrs. Blackwelder as well as Dolly Rhodes and Dennis are making their home here. FIRST WINNER of the "Lucky Parker" Contest at Cameron Center, Mrs. Francis A. Purcell, looks on proudly as her son, Johnny, 9, receives her potted palm prize. Presenting it to him on behalf of George Cameron, Jr., is C. C. Hutchins, general manager of the Cameron Enterprises. The license plate of Mrs. Purcell's car was photographed by a mystery photographer and published in The Desert Sun soon after the contest was launched. Cameron originated the idea of offering palms for lucky parkers at his 1,000-car parking lot on Palm Springs "Golden Mile." It's part of his campaign to step up the use of palms in residential landscaping. Autoists whose license plate photos appear in the Sun on Saturday may call at the office of Russell Wade, 850 South Palm Canyon Drive, for their prize.

Memorial Scroll Planned

Palm Springs Animal Protective League officials have instituted a "Memorial Scroll" for resort area animal lovers who contribute to the league building fund in "memory of a lost pet."

An ornamental scroll, inscribed with the name of the pet, its owner and community, will hang in the lobby of the new animal shelter, officials said.

CONTRIBUTORS who mail in $2 or more in memory of their lost pets may be included on the Memorial Scroll.

The scroll was suggested by league directors Mrs. Everette Dunlap and Mrs. Bryan Boyd, who contributed to the fund in memory of a dog that had been a neighborhood pet.

SCROLL CONTRIBUTORS to date are Mr. and Mrs. Lee Strobel, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Banks, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Laylor, Col. and Mrs. M. A. Sine, all of Cathedral City; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Klein, of Yucaipa; Mrs. Janet Storch, of Palm Springs; Mr. and

Mrs. E. W. Bolinger, of Palm Desert; and Mr. and Mrs. Tony Burke, of Palm Desert. One contribution was received with the note that "this small sum 'in memory of a cat we loved so much, may help to find a home for some abandoned or lost animal in the desert.'"

Mailing address for contributions is Post Office Box 749, Palm Springs.

It Pays to Own a Dodge!

(It could save you hundreds of dollars!)

Okay, it's settled. You've thought about it and talked about it and now you've decided: A new car—and soon. Now for the jackpot question. Which '59 car will it be?

Unless you happen to be a Mr. Gotrocks, you'll probably think pretty carefully before you finally make the move. You'll do more shopping and compare more closely. And you'll ask yourself some basic questions. How much will a new car cost me to buy? How much will it cost me to drive? What do I get for my money?

There is no mystery about new car prices

Until this year, it was hard to compare different makes of cars to find which offered the most value for the money. It was like comparing apples and bananas. But not any more. Not since all new cars are required to carry price labels. Now, for the first time, you can compare various makes and models and see exactly what you're getting for your money. It's like exposing the hole cards in a game of stud poker: You know exactly where you stand.

Why should you buy a Dodge?

No one has to tell you that there are a number of cars on the market that sell for less than a Dodge. No cigar on that count. You know it and we know it. But there are things you get in a Dodge that you simply can't get in these other smaller cars. And this is important. Dodge gives you all of these things—the bigness and roominess, the comfort and ride, the luxury and prestige—for less than other cars in its field.

It's not just a few dollars less, either; in many cases it's literally hundreds of dollars less. Some Dodge models are even priced lower than the so-called "low-priced cars." (We'll be happy to show you the actual suggested retail prices.)

All cars cost money to run—but how much?

It would be nice if you just bought a new car and that was that. It didn't burn gas. Didn't use oil. Never needed service. But that's wishful thinking. Cars do use gas and oil. They do need service occasionally. But that doesn't mean that all cars cost the same to drive and maintain. Not by a jugful. There's a big difference.

Dodge is designed to run for less

Dodge has always had a reputation for economical operation. People who have owned them have found it costs less to run a Dodge, and that a Dodge needs service less often.

Take gasoline economy. The new Dodge 326 cu. in. Red Ram V-8 engine, because of its design and efficiency, will take you miles farther on a gallon of gas than any other V-8 in the Dodge field. You save money every mile you drive.

But that's only part of the story. The way Dodge is engineered and built saves you money on such things as engine wear, brake relining, tune-ups, spark plug replacement. When you add them all up, they represent quite a saving. Another reason why it pays to own a Dodge.

What do you get for what you pay?

According to Manufacturer's Suggested Retail Prices, Dodge generally costs less, model for model, than other cars in its field. Fine and dandy. But while price is important, it isn't the only consideration. The real standard of value—whether you're buying a new car or a can of beans—is what you get for what you pay. It's the "extras" you get at no extra cost that really determine which car is the best buy.

Dodge gives you more for less

Talk is cheap. Anyone can make claims. So let's be specific about the extras you get in Dodge at no extra cost. Torsion-Aire Ride—conceded the finest suspension in the industry—standard equipment on all Dodge models. Total-Contact Brakes, Safety-Rim Wheels, Electric Windshield Wipers, Independent Parking Brake—all standard on Dodge. Of course, you can also choose from such Dodge options as Push-Button Driving, Full-Time Power Steering and Swing-Out Swivel Seats.

There's a big difference in comfort, too

Goodness knows, we certainly don't want to knock competition. But we feel obligated to point out the comfort and convenience of the '59 Dodge. If you've tried getting into some of the other '59 cars you know just what we mean. To say it is difficult would honestly be an understatement. That's why we hope you'll come in and compare the difference in Dodge. How much easier it is to get in and out of a Dodge. How much more comfortable it is to sit in a Dodge. How much more room you have to stretch out. Really, it pays to own a Dodge.

It doesn't cost a penny to get the facts

We don't expect you to rush in and plunk down your money for a new Dodge just on the basis of what you've read. But if what you've read seems to make sense, we do hope you'll stop in to see, to drive and to price a Dodge. We think it's a waste of a buy, but then maybe we're prejudiced. Why not drop in and judge for yourself. We'll be more than happy to give you all the facts. No obligation, of course.

The Desert Sun is an independent newspaper dedicated to truth, accuracy and impartiality in the news; to the progress of the desert region; to the support of that which it believes to be right and to the defeat of that which it believes to be wrong.

Approaching Age of Solar Power
Points to Desert Advantages

The often anticipated age of solar power is fast approaching.

In Palm Springs the first solar powered clock has been performing perfectly for well over a year as proof of the potent power to be derived from our almost perpetual daily sunshine.

And in added attestation and appropriateness, in our view of our record number of swimming pools, now comes the first solar heated pool.

Several solar heated houses are already in existence.

The solar lighted and operated light-house is now being placed in operation on the coast of Southern California.

These are but a few of the preliminary and primary examples of how heat and energy from the rays of the sun can be collected and concentrated to furnish motive power as well as heat and light for a multitude of uses and benefits to all mankind.

Utilization of energy from the sun as a source of power has many distinct, practical and attractive advantages. The sun's rays are sent to us "for free." The only cost lies for the apparatus to convert them to any use desired. The source is abundant and inexhaustible. The process of producing solar power does not create problems of smoke, waste or emission of pollutants of any kind, and would on the contrary be a long step forward in the elimination of smog and maintaining a clear atmosphere.

Admittedly the age of solar power is yet in the beginning stage, but with the growing number of instances in which successful applications are now being made, it is entirely possible that a sudden surge of American inventive ingenuity combined with wholesale commercial production could result in a sweeping acceptance and adoption of its usage in a matter of a very few years.

The sweeping transformation this could bring to the desert regions with its great potential "powerhouse" of year around sunshine is almost beyond the limits of the most optimistically imaginative minds, both as to the use of solar power on the spot and its production and transmission to other less sunny areas.

Certain it is that the Desert Empire has a bright and limitless future as a delightful place to live with boundless opportunities for health, pleasure and profit.

Solar power would be a marvelous addition to its resources, economy and incomparable advantages.

Symington '40 and Symington '60

WASHINGTON, D. C. — It's a cinch that this time of spring just 19 years ago — April 11, 1940, to be exact — the taffy-haired, 39-year-old speaker at a business management convention in the Staller Hotel, Cleveland, had no thoughts of running for President in 1960.

This safe assumption makes a valid approach, I think, to the presidential potentials of Senator Stuart Symington (D., Mo.). In 1940 he was famous in his field, which was efficiency engineering.

TODAY SYMINGTON is somewhat stymied by his own proficiency. He has built such a reputation as an Air Power critic as to distract attention from his competence in other fields. At least two other subjects are emotionally absorbing to the Senator and a third subject, to which I shall return, is the habit of his adult lifetime. Educators and their salaries appeal to Symington because his father was an Amherst College professor who had to leave his chosen profession and practice law to support the family. His father's academic post is the reason why Stuart Symington, with a family background as Maryland as crab cakes, came to be born in Massachusetts.

THE SENATOR HAS never to this day outlived his annoyance over the fact that learned men with the special talent of pedagogy get paid less than they are worth in a land that honors teachers. Symington feels the same way about farmers. He will cry out hotly in private discourse, and often out of context with the flow of conversation, that farmers and workers are the most ill-paid workers in the country.

It is, however, against his life's career as a business trouble-shooter that Symington should be measured for his 1960

White House fitness. His political "chances" are not the subject of this column. Several Democrats are ahead of Symington for the nomination. It's far from certain that any Democrat can change the country's new habit of voting for Republicans at the top of the ticket. The only point worth pursuing is this — would Symington make a good President?

WELL, HE WAS AN excellent industrial manager who saved a couple of floundering firms during a depression time. He was a superb labor-management relationist in the gloomy days when the Wagner Act was being pressed like a crown of thorns upon the brow of American industry.

It is possible, I think, to construct an objective image of Symington '60 from the materials of Symington '40. And if there is any analogy between the prewar Depression and the post-war Cold War, then we possibly can estimate what sort of a President this man might make if elected next year.

SYMINGTON'S FORMULA for business management, as I find it in an exhaustive, 30-page presentation, comes down to "order and simplicity." He is not talking in a vacuum, for he illustrates what he means.

In a plant with a record sit-down strike, Symington discovered disorder in the form of "three separate and distinct wage plans . . . and chaotic conditions can be imagined." The confusion was such that "literally not more than five people in this organization" knew what was going on.

SYMINGTON'S CRITIQUE (it was not a satire) of this specific plant's difficulties would not be an inaccurate description of the Federal departments. It's seriously to be doubted if five persons in State, Agriculture, Labor and Defense know what the score is. Assuming that Symington '60 would react like Symington '40, this would be his general plan for straightening out the Federal Government: "The open mind, coordination, simplicity. All abstracts, but all are plenty concrete from the standpoint of profit. To attain these ends . . . requires more than one man . . . Changes should be made by a group . . . Otherwise any reorganization is liable to get badly mixed up . . . The concrete corporate approach . . . is not just the top . . . (It) goes down to the worker himself."

TO SYMINGTON '40 the Wagner Labor Act, and the new Wage Hour legislation, were not the crack of doom. This astonishing young manager regarded the revolutionary Federal intervention as "a great incentive to scheduling." He felt that the new difficulties of doing business were a challenge to do business in a better, more efficient manner.

Compulsory bargaining with the unions was difficult, but he saw a silver lining to which most employers were blind. He told this 1940 spring convention of the Society for the Advancement of Management that if the new order "has brought the average employer closer to his employees, that is an advantage."

Well, perhaps we should be cautious about all candidates. Skepticism is a sound political rule, but the young Symington had a proven talent for bringing simplicity out of chaos. And he had that marvelous gift of practical optimism which sees hope where others see only despair.

These are not bad traits for any man who might be President in our time. —Holmes Alexander

NEW RECORD

'Operatic Arias' by Rysanek and Basile

Operatic Arias, Leonie Rysanek, soprano; Orchestra under the direction of Arturo Basile. RCA-Victor Red Seal Record, $3.95.

Out-of-context excerpts from symphonies or operas are usually a bad idea. They serve to destroy the continuity of thought that goes into the specific symphonic movement or operatic aria.

There are exceptions to every rule and this new RCA-Victor recording of some of the best-loved of all operatic arias, sung beautifully by dramatic soprano Leonie Rysanek with an extremely sensitive orchestral background furnished by Arturo Basile, is such an exception.

FOUR OF THE EIGHT are Verdi arias — since it has become a near heresy for any singer not to render Verdi — which Miss Rysanek does nicely, especially "Pace, Pace, Mio Dio" from La Forza del Destino.

Her lack of facility in the lower register — particularly prevalent in "O Patria Mia" from Aida — is compensated for mightily by a thorough-going familiarity with her upper range.

The other four arias are another matter. She sings the almost over-popular "Vissi D'Arte" from Puccini's Tosca in a manner calculated to give you a completely new and thoroughly spiritual evaluation of the role.

SHE TAKES ONE of the two most beautiful selections from Giordano's Andrea Chénier, "La Mamma Morta," and reads into it a new, an even greater beauty. (The other "most beautiful" work in this opera is the duet between Maddalena and Chénier sung in a prison.)

Princess Turandot's explanation of why she can never love a man, exquisitely told by Puccini in the "Signor In Questa Reggia," also gets a meaningful treatment by the versatile Miss Rysanek, although (again) some of the bottom notes appear to be treated scantly.

Finally, her interpretation of "Voi Lo Sapete," from Mascagni's Cavalleria Rusticana, is a thrillingly real capture of all the desperation Santuzza feels following her desertion by Turiddu. There is a more than fleeting touch of the pathos that the threat of unwed motherhood can provide in this sterling performance.

THROUGH IT ALL, a superbly balanced orchestra — or perhaps it is a series of orchestras — under the baton of Basile provide backgrounds that neither fade from hearing or override the singer. This business of balancing sound behind a singer is, perhaps, the most treacherous of pitfalls confronting operatic conductors.

The circus is over
So now let us say
You'll be sorry if
You don't stay through May

Annually we bring you that message. Because so many people, newcomers, haven't experienced the month of May here and do not know that it is one of the best.

THEY FIGURE that just because summer took a few practice jumps in April and topped the 100-degree mark, May is going to be warmer.

It rarely is. Don't take my word for it, ask any old-timer. He, or she, as the case may be, will tell you that May and June are delightful months, especially May.

FRIEND CALLS to tell me that I still can use that idea for a pool on the hot weather.

Annually I suggest that one. Everybody buy a ticket for a buck and venture a guess on the day and hour the mercury will first soar into the three-digit bracket.

This year I was too late. Figure I had at least until April 10 but the 100-degree plus mark was reached on April 2.

MY IDEA is that the person whose guess is nearest gets about a fourth of the money paid in and the remainder, except for a modest cut to me for suggesting the idea, goes to charity.

Well, my friend said that the pool idea is fine. "Only instead of a money pool, when the mercury hits 100, try the swimming pool."

HAL KAPP and TED SMITH of Palm Desert are underwriting an idea to promote the desert area and its prominence as the Winter Golf Capital of the World.

Mel Harrison designed an attractive sticker calling attention to "Palm Desert," home of Ryder Cup Matches, Nov. 1-6, 1959. Chuch Hill produced the stickers and Kapp and Smith took over.

THEY URGE that every single letter that goes out of the area for the next six months carry the sticker on the envelope.

In that way the Ryder Cup matches, which will be played at Eldorado Country Club, will receive tremendous publicity, so will Palm Desert and incidentally, all of the desert.

Harrison, Hill, Kapp and Smith are giving their time to this for free.

The stickers sell in books of 100 for a buck each. It's a good idea.

GEORGE LAINE, the music, art and dramatic critic of The Desert Sun, went out to interview a visitor to the Palm Springs area the other day. The man was a soap manufacturer.

"To what do you attribute your success?" asked George. "To clean living, son, to clean living."

George wouldn't print it—but I did.

STAN DELAPLANE'S
Postcard

If you live a reasonable length of time, you will do a very unreasonable thing: You will write a book.

There are about 5,000 books published each year — I think that is the figure and I am not going to look it up. Whatever it is, it is fantastic. AND, mind you, this does not include books written and NOT published.

The relationship between books published and not published — the ratio of literary endeavor — is like the part of the iceberg that shows to the part that lies beneath the surface.

IT FIGURES ABOUT like this: One in every 100 Americans has published a book. Some 85 others have written a book. In part or the whole thing. The rest are planning a book. Or else reading the ones that have been written and saying:

"How do they sell such junk? If I had time —"

I have written a book and it will be published. So the other day I went to lunch with Mr. Jack Geoghegan, the book-publishing man.

"The question now," said Jack, "is how will we sell it?"

"COULD WE JUST put it in book stores?" I said timidly. "A good many books are in book stores. And I see people go in to buy them."

"Most of them are browsing," he said. "People will not go into a lingerie store to browse. But a book store is a public pasture. It is the great whiter-away of time during the lunch hour."

"No," said Mr. Geoghegan with a sigh, "we must have a gimmick."

"What sort of gimmick?" "WELL," HE SAID, "there is the autograph party. You can sign your name." He asked anxiously. "Good. We have an autograph party and you can sign books."

"Will they buy the books? Also I am very messy with a pen. The ink blots and I might spoil a book."

Mr. Geoghegan said of course people will buy signed books. "It is more personal. If you spill ink on one," he said grandly, "I will pay for it myself."

"I wouldn't want to be over-exposed. It always seemed to me that people bought books for what was in them. Or to fill the bookcase. Or because the jacket had a lot of cleavage."

Geoghegan said this was a naive notion. Entertained by nearly all people who did not have to sell books for a living.

"Books are something like pan cakes," he said. "You get the pancakes so that you have something to put syrup on."

EARL WILSON:

How Things Have Changed

NEW YORK — I've just been asked a surprising question. "Have a lot of pretty young girls," inquired a male acquaintance, "been annoying you lately by wanting to hug you and kiss you and fondle you?"

Frankly, none had, but not wanting to appear a wallflower, I smiled knowingly and said, "You, too?"

"Darned embarrassing, isn't it?" fretted my friend. "I'm 60"—hes 65, but never mind — "and when one of these 20-year-olds hurls her shapely self on my chest and says, 'Hey Lover, how about a smooch I cringe. An old-timer of about 70 who lives at a nursing home tells me he gets these advances made at him, too. By young girls in the neighborhood who want to teach him the cha-cha-cha. You know what I think it is?"

"WHAT IS IT?" I asked anxiously. I figured it must be some sexy shaving lotion I didn't know about yet.

"It's the population change. We men are at last the exclusive sex. We are going to be the wooed and the pursued."

"If it'll help the country, I'll endure it," I said, bravely, gritting my caps.

But I knew that my woman-chased friend was right. The male shortage that was once Hollywood's, leading beautiful starlets to phone men for dates, pick them up and also pick up the checks, has spread until in all sections of the country, young girls are going to be "carrying the U.S. male."

I went to a recent party attended by the most glamorous models and starlets in New York, including Miss Tina Louise.

"Isn't it too bad?" one pretty thing whinnied to me. I asked what was too bad. "Not enough men to go around, as usual," she answered deep in gloom.

I didn't mean to blab this, but it was at this same party that one girl told me I was obviously such a grand chap I was entitled to have two wives at the same time. We men face a new way of life (or is it wife) that must weigh heavily upon us. We are now the pampered, perfumed, plated sex. We must get hairdos and facials, primp in hand mirrors, watch out for she-wolves, fend off passes and walk home if the helicopter runs out of gas; we must be very careful of our reputations so that we are known in all the neighborhood as a nice boy; we must never accept any jewelry from girls, in fact nothing more personal at any time than perhaps a piece of lingerie; we must be a little deceitful about our age and we must keep our figure nice and trim for the girl we are waiting for. Just to start the thing off, my measurements are 40-44-48.

MIKE CONNOLLY:
Family Feud

HOLLYWOOD — The family feud between young Jack Warner on one side and his father and stepmother on the other is apparently irreparable. Junior, who was barred from the Warner Bros. lot two months ago, is dickering to move his own production unit over to another major studio — 20th Fox.

Alan Jay Lerner & Fritz Loeve, the "My Fair Lady" and "Gigi" geniuses, have set their original "Lady," Julie Andrews, for the role of Guinevere in their next stage musical, "King Arthur and the Round Table," based on "Once and Future Kings."

Richard Burton and Laurence Harvey will make their singing saloons in this one, just as Rex Harrison did in "Lady" — as King Arthur and Sir Lancelot, respectively.

I STARTED BEATING the "Bramble Bush" bushes for some news items at Warner Bros. on the first day of shooting, to find Barbara Rush being bombarded every hour on the hour with bouquets from her fiancé, Warren Cowan. Said Barbara: "Warren and I get along beautifully — he loves to send roses and I love to get them."

Barbara also kicked in with a "kicky" story about herself and Shirley MaLaine. When Shirley landed her starring spot in "Some Came Running" she phoned Barbara excitedly: "It's a great part — I play a bad woman and I get killed!" So when Barbara bagged "Bramble Bush" she phoned Shirley, twice as excited: "What a deal this is — besides getting killed, I get tuberculosis, a nervous breakdown and an illegitimate baby!"

Actress ack - ack re another actress, same set: "I heard some TERRIBLE things about that one — I wish I could remember what they were."

EVY NORLUND, Columbia's new starlet, was Miss Denmark in the 1958 Miss Universe contest and the studio has got the doll looking exactly like another one of its contractees, Kim Novak, in case Kim kicks up her heels and starts turning down picture assignments: same hair do, same hair-hue, same practically - everything - else! And here's the kicker: Evy is dating Kim's old boy friend, Mac Krim.

One of Diane Varsi's recent blast-bullets from Bennington said that one of the reasons she doesn't like Hollywood is because everything depends on the clothes you wear and the car you drive. So NOW we know why Diane slopped around town in bluejeans and drove a Model A!

PAT ROONE is nudging George Stevens to let him play a non-singing sort of "The Greatest Story Ever Told."

So okay — Frank Sinatra and Jerry Lewis aren't talking to Sammy Davis Jr. these days. But the Columbia Pictures bosses are — they called him about essaying a starring stung in "The Young Warriors."

As for Jack's claims that he can get funnier guests in New York than he can in Hollywood, I'm not too sure about that. The fastest, most fantastic ad-libbers I've ever heard live out here — from Oscar Levant to George Burns to Bob Hope to Vincent Price to Nunnally Johnson to Groucho Marx to Dennis Day — yes, even to Zsa Zsa Gabor! Hey, Jack—backtrack!

The couple had been sealed into the station wagon since last Oct. 25, and Haynes still stands to collect $5,000—plus the car and fittings—if he can stay inside the vehicle until Oct. 25, 1959. The couple had been taking passive exercise with a Ther-Cycloid heat massage pad, manufactured by Cre-Fan. TWENTYNINE PALMS — Six children and three adults were injured, seven of them seriously, when two autos collided in a head-

Dear Abby...

... by Abigail VanBuren

DEAR ABBY: My husband talks in his sleep. I KNOW he does, but he denies it. About a year ago I heard him say: "You seem to know when I need you the most!" When I woke him up he claimed he had ME in mind. Time proved him a liar. Last night I heard him say plain as day, "I've been sitting in this alley waiting for you. What time do you have to be back at work, Baby?" I shook him and woke him up and when I told him what he said, he said I was the one who was dreaming. Could I be dreaming that I hear him talking in his sleep or do you think otherwise? NO DREAMER

DEAR NO: It's not what a man says in his sleep that counts. It's how he behaves when he's awake.

DEAR ABBY: When you send a GET WELL card to someone sick, how sick should they be? If they are on the critical list... don't you wait at least until they are out of danger? Thank you.

DEAR WONDERING: Friends do not usually hold off sending a get well card. If the patient is critically ill, they send their good wishes and hope for the best.

DEAR ABBY: I am engaged to NUMBER ONE BOY, but NUMBER TWO BOY will not stay out of the picture. NUMBER ONE BOY says that if I am not sure of myself I should go with NUMBER TWO BOY, but I know that NUMBER TWO BOY is not the marrying kind. I like NUMBER TWO BOY better than NUMBER ONE BOY in a few ways because he is more romantic, but NUMBER ONE BOY is more dependable. Please tell me what to do.

Andrade Wins in First City Bouts Before 3,800

THIRD AND LAST KNOCKDOWN, WITH 1:52 GONE IN SIXTH, DEMPSEY STOPPED IT WITH BURTON BLEEDING BADLY.

LIGHTWEIGHT CISCO ANDRADE slips a long lead thrown by Jay Fullmer in featured 10-rounder at Desert Circus prizefights Saturday night. Andrade, a seasoned campaigner, notched his big early lead and coasted to split-decision win over Utah youngster. Fight was part of five-bout card in first professional matches ever presented in Palm Springs. (Desert Sun Photo)

Clark Notches KO No. 39 In Bout Here

Cisco Andrade, a ringwise lightweight campaigner, had his hands full here Saturday night as Desert Circus presented the first card of professional boxing in the city's history but the Compton Comet hung on to gain a split decision over Utah's Jay Fullmer.

The battle was the fourth of a bloody five-bout line up staged before some 3,800 fans at the Polo Grounds.

Andrade, currently engaged in a comeback, took charge at the outset of the 10-rounder, was the aggressor for at least the first seven rounds and opened up a cut on Fullmer's eye in the fifth stanza that bled profusely for the rest of the bout.

Fullmer's lack of style upset Andrade somewhat, with the West Jordan, Utah, youngster landing hard — primarily in the third, fourth, ninth and tenth rounds.

Referee Frankie Van — and most of the ringers — had Fullmer the winner. Van scored it 95-94, for the blood-smeared lightweight.

But Judges George Latka and Major Jimmy Wilson had it the other way around. Latka called it 97-90 for Andrade and Wilson saw it 95-94 for the Compton belter. The Desert Sun scorecard had Andrade a solid winner, 97-89.

THE OTHER 10-rounder, billed as a "co-main event," pitted middleweights Don Fullmer and Orlando DiPietro in a bout that had more wrestling than most wrestling matches possess, more dancing than Arthur Murray gets away with.

Stylewise, the two boxers both utilized hitting-holding tactics with Referee Van working harder at breaking clinches than either of the fighters did in throwing punches.

Another bloodbath, DiPietro got to the rugged Fullmer early, spilling claret from the Utaher's nose in the second round. DiPietro won the unanimous decision.

BY FAR THE bloodiest match on the card, however, was a six-round effort that pitted up-and-coming heavyweight La Mar Clark against Los Angeles veteran Tony Burton.

Clark, working on a string of 38 consecutive knockouts, kept the string intact by registering No. 39 when guest referee Jack Dempsey halted the slaughter with 1:52 gone in the final round.

Clark came out for the first like he meant to end it in that round. He threw a long right that Burton sidestepped and the punch wound up on the ring post.

IN THE SECOND round, Clark shook the Los Angeles Negro badly, starting a flow of blood from Burton's nose and mouth. Clark followed with more of the same in the third and staggered Burton repeatedly in the fourth and fifth rounds. Clark apparently was unable to follow up his advantages in those two rounds.

In the sixth, with protective coverings ripped from both eyebrows, Burton under went a savage beating. He took two 9-counts before Dempsey stepped between the pair.

In four round action, Gus Hurtado won over Werner Richter and Fred McMurray decisioned Andy Isaacs.

Clark Sought for Hollywood Bout

HOLLYWOOD — (UP) — Light-weight Ray Rojas, of Houston, Tex., and Eddie Pace, Los Angeles, will meet Saturday night in a 10-round bout at Legion Stadium. Matchmaker Jackie Leonard also announced today that he was trying to arrange a bout between Lamar Clark, Utah heavyweight knockout sensation, and a worthy opponent on the same card. Clark racked up his 39th kayo last Saturday when he stopped Tony Burton, Los Angeles, at Palm Springs.

Solons Return After Disastrous Road Trip

With a disastrous road trip ended—they lost four, won none out of town — the Sacramento Solons move back into the Polo Grounds here today to tiff San Diego in a nine-inning ball game.

The Solons lost to Seattle Sunday in El Centro by a 12-8 score, continuing their dismal out-of-town record. The Solons to date have won once on the road, lost seven times. Their home game record is even up at 3-3.

SOLON MANAGER Bob "Wild Bill" Elliott, whose major problems have revolved around his overly-generous pitching staff, today lashed Noel Mickelsen to hurl against the Padres.

"He'll go nine," said Elliott, "if he can." Up to now, Solon pitchers have been working seven and two inning stints over the nine-inning games. Today's feature starts step four of Elliott's plan to bring his mound staff to readiness for the season.

Tomorrow the Solons travel to Brawley where they'll meet Portland. Elliott said that Winston (Salem) Brown would hurl against the Ports "for the nine if he holds up."

JOE STANKA and Carl Greene took a drubbing from the Rainiers Sunday but "Nippy" Jones found his batting eye, belting two line drive doubles far into the left field corner. Jones' sudden activation brought a smile to Elliott's face, one of the few he's enjoyed in this spring session.

The Sacramento return here Thursday to tilt Portland at the Polo Grounds, play Seattle at the same place Friday, move to Yuma Sunday for a game with Vancouver and then play Vancouver here next Monday.

Finals Scheduled
In 19th Annual Event on May 3

Dates for the 19th annual city-wide Senior Tennis tournament have been tentatively set by the City Recreation Department, Howard Haddock, superintendent, said today.

Preliminary matches will be played at Tamarisk Park courts on Saturday and Sunday, April 18 and 19 in the city-sponsored event.

SEMI-FINALS and finals will be played on the weekend of May 2 and 3 at the Racquet Club.

The program calls for men's singles, women's singles, men's doubles and mixed doubles.

The tournament is open to all local residents and any who own property here and who are amateurs. Entry fees for high school students in all events will be 50 cents, Haddock said. For the men's and women's singles the entry fee is $2 and for all other adult events, $1.

FIRST ROUND losers are eligible for the Consolation Round.

Frank Ripley, junior netter and winner of many west coast tourneys, is the defending champion in the men's singles. He defeated John Krysiak last year, the first time a high school student had won the tournament.

Indians Meet Coachella in Fight for Lead

Both Teams Boast
Undeclared Marks
In League to Date

Coach George Schohl took his Indian baseball team to meet their arch rivals, Coachella Valley, this afternoon at 3 p.m. there in the third Riverside County League game for both teams and something will have to give.

The Arabs and the Indians are currently tied for the RCL lead with two wins and no losses each.

THE INDIANS have won from San Jacinto and Elsinore and the Arabs have defeated Hemet and Perris.

Today's winner will hold the undisputed lead in the RCL.

Hottest item on the Tribe team to date is Marty Berk, second baseman, who has hit safely six times in eight official times at bat. Left fielder Bailey and Catcher Joe Lewis each have 3 out of 4 for .375 averages and N. Ruiz is hitting .235.

THURSDAY the Indians go to Banning which is 0-2 to date.

Coach Schohl said he would go with Lefty Segundo on the mound this afternoon, Lewis catching. Tomlinson at first, Berk at second, N. Ruiz at short, L. Ruiz at third, Bailey in left, Crata in center and Flores in right.

Pick Braves, Yanks to Win Flags Again

TAMPA, Fla. (UPI) — The Yankees and the Braves again. That's the way the 1959 major league pennant races look to me after six weeks of covering the spring training camps in Florida and receiving reports on the four Arizona-based clubs.

It looks like the Yankees in a breeze. They may spread - eagle the field again like they did last season when they virtually had the American League pennant wrapped up by July 4.

The Braves may be in for rough sledding because of a second base problem. But they appear to have too much pitching and all-around strength for the other clubs in the National League.

Here are this observer's predictions on the 1959 finishes:

American	National
New York	Milwaukee
Detroit	Pittsburgh
Chicago	Los Angeles
Boston	Cincinnati
Cleveland	San Francisco
Baltimore	Philadelphia
Kansas City	Chicago
Washington	St. Louis

IS A SARDINE A PARTICULAR SPECIES OF FISH?

In the strict sense of the term, sardine is not the name of a species of fish. The original and true sardine is a young species of pilchard found in European waters. It most likely got its name from Sardinia, island in the Mediterranean.

Adult Classes Very Popular

Two adult education classes offered by Palm Springs Unified School District's Adult Evening Division are loaded not only with desert residents but with winter visitors to the desert, a spokesman for the classes said today.

Wilton McCoy's landscape painting from nature has a full class and so does Still Life and Basic Drawing, instructed by Gaylord Richmond.

FIRST ANNUAL BREAKFAST presented by Palm Springs Lions Club—in conjunction with the Desert Circus celebration—lured hundreds to the Safeway Market parking area Saturday morning where complete breakfasts were served by Village Lions. Treesweet donated orange juice, Knudsen's Dairy and Golden State Dairy provided milk, cream and butter, and Safeway provided the rest of the fixings. Lions realized $750 profit for charity purposes from the venture and promised it will be a "regular feature" of future Desert Circus celebrations. (Desert Sun Photo)

Saturday's big 23rd Annual Desert Circus Parade, a "Salute to Colorado," received an extra, impromptu salutation, compliments of the U.S. Air Force.

Air Force jets from George Air Force Base buzzed the Palm Canyon Drive parade in a double-barreled airborne salute.

In addition to Desert Circus, the Air Force fly boys were directing their "Salute" to Zaddie Bunker, Palm Springs' flying great-grandmother, who was featured on Coachella Valley Savings and Loan Association's colorful "jet-powered" parade float.

Zaddie will be guest of honor when George AFB stages its Air Academy Day program May 16—and Zaddie will become the world's first great-grandmother to penetrate the sound barrier via a jet fighter plane.

To Be Studied

Car Dealers Ask Sign Leniency

Asking for authorization to put up signs showing used car lots, and for the right to put price signs in used cars on displays on the lots, local automobile dealers appeared before the City Council Monday at its conference session.

Although the dealers did not get a "yes" they did receive a promise that the question would be considered very carefully.

ED McCoubrey, president of the Palm Springs Automobile Dealers Association, said that Palm Springs dealers were losing "some $500,000 a year in used car sales and another $500,000 a year in new car sales because they could not display used cars."

"Many people do not know that Palm Springs new car dealers also sell used cars, and according to the local ordinance governing used car sale lots, we cannot display used cars," said the association president.

D. C. STACHLER, a member of the association, said that the dealers were not asking for permission to establish "used car lots," but rather for the authority to establish "used car departments" of new car agencies.

"We do not want to see used car lots in Palm Springs either, and we have no idea of putting up lights and turning our areas into lots, but we would like to be able to mark the cars with the make and price," said Stachler.

ONE MEMBER of the council asked what the dealers thought could be done about it without freeing the use of display signs all over town, and another thought it might open the door to used car dealerships.

McCoubrey said that they did not want to see used car lots in Palm Springs, and said that the display of signs on cars might be limited to new car dealerships only—on the same property as the dealership is registered.

The proposition will be studied by the Planning Commission and the council and a report made at a later date.

Padua Hills Play in 26th Annual Run

CLAREMONT — The 26th annual presentation of San Ysidro's Fiesta, "En el Mes de Mayo," opens a seven weeks run at Padua Hills Theatre, April 22.

Translated, the title of the annual spring play is "In the Month of May." Written by the late Charles A. Dickenson especially for The Mexican Players, this year's production will be staged by Eligio Herrera.

Currently on stage at Padua Hills Theatre is "Trovador Californiano," story of Early California during the turbulent days when the state changed its allegiance from Mexico to the United States.

Presented in English, the play features Singer Manuel Gonzales in the title role of soldier-trovador, Dancer Casilda Amador, Celia Garcia, and Armida Maldonado. The play will run through April 18.

Padua plays are slated Wednesday through Saturday at 8:30 p.m. with matinees each Wednesday and Saturday at 2:30. The Mexican Players also present songs and dances daily except Mondays in the dining room of non-profit Padua Institute.

For an all-purpose spring cleaner, try grandma's favorite, sal soda concentrated, also known as washing soda. It can be used in solution form on everything from venetian blinds to painted walls, windows, mirrors, plastic surfaces and linoleum floors. Vary the strength according to the amount of grime you're fighting.

"It was more like a home coming ... we received such a royal welcome" ...

There were celebrities all over town this past week ... probably more than at any other one time ... including a King, a former President, two Governors, two ex-Governors ... movie and television stars ... top men in the field of newspaper, radio, television and films ... as well as names that are internationally known ...

They ranged from the two Governors ... and adorable Shirley Temple ... who headed the glittering parade that filled Palm Canyon Drive for over two hours ... waving and wafting kisses to fans who lined the curbs ... to young, dark-eyed King Hussein of Jordan ... who without fanfare, paid a quiet overnight visit here ... and to ex-President Harry S. Truman who planned in for a day in the sun ...

Among the highlights was the beautiful Big Top Ball at Thunderbird ... Despite the fact that it lacked its two top guests ... (when the Governors declined to cross the picket line ... and dined at the Tennis Club instead) ... it was as beautiful and glamorous as any we have ever had ... and the only vacant seats were those at the head table ... where Queen Shirley Temple would still have been the cynosure of all eyes ...

Across the big pavilion at Ray Ryan's table were ... Bill Holden, Patti Page and Charles O'Curran, Mary and Bill Gargan ... Sandy and John Payne were there ... in the costumed crowd ... The dozens of white carnations flown here from Denver ... the fat little elephant with jeweled eyelashes and the leering gorilla that welcomed guests arriving at the Big Top ... the exhibit of Palette Club paintings that raised around $5000 for the Desert Circus ... the music of the Teddy Noell and Arnold Murray orchestras ... the fine service of the diminished Thunderbird staff ... augmented by waiters and waitresses borrowed from El Mirador and from Jack Boyer ... all contributed to its success ...

It was a glamorous spectacle ... and due to the ingenious work of Ruth Manseau and her committee ... everyone seemed pleased with table arrangements ... while Marcia Barrett and her committee were overwhelmed with compliments on the decor ...

Saturday was quite a day ... with Bob Taliaferro coming up with the idea of hosting a parade party ... A canvas overhead shaded around 100 chairs set up in the Desert Inn driveway ... and cold drinks and a buffet luncheon was served to his guests ... among them General Bowser of 29 Palms ... and Governor McNichols mother and uncle Judge Warner and his wife ...

Kangaroo Court at the Tennis Club started early ... and was well-attended ... with a western enacted in front of skeleton movie set buildings ... as a background for the Fast Draw contest ...

Missed the hair styling contest at Chi Chi completely ... as we had to dress for the Truman reception ... The Regans had collected an interesting group ... which included Harry Brand of 20th Century-Fox, Wilbur Clarke of Las Vegas' Desert Inn ... Johnny Mack Brown, the Harry Joe Browns, the Clarence Browns ... Jimmy Van Heusen, Mark Kramer (the stayed over for a week) and Winsome Courtney, the Hank Ridders, Gus Kettmanns, Jerry Nathanson (Jerry says this romance with Kay Starr is the biggest thing in his life ... Harold Lund, owner of the Pittsburgh Post Gazette and columnist Harold Cohen ... Sam Mannis, the Co Thorntons, Julie Copeland ... Mayor Bogert, Charles Farrell, Supervisor and Mrs. Warren Dorn ... the young Joseph Regans and Michael ...

From the airport we headed for Thunderbird ... where Desert Circus chairman June Clarke was hosting a farewell party for the Coloradoans ... The flags of Colorado and of California flew from the roof ... and balloons added the Circus touch to the garden where Johnny Boyle served a chuckwagon brunch ...

From the Regans ... we went on to Tennis Club ... where the Venetian Room was already well filled for the cocktail party that preceded the Pre-Symphony dinner ...

The dinner was one of the Club's delightful buffets ... and we joined the large group that was hosted by Guild President, Mrs. John F. Luccarelli and her husband Jack ... who was celebrating his birthday ...

Off early to the high school auditorium ... and thankful this wasn't to be an al fresco engagement as the wind had come up by then ...

The auditorium was not completely filled as it had been for the ballet ... but it was a good crowd ... and most appreciative of the wonderful music ...

Postscript: If Madelyn Fio Rito suddenly starts flying the Bear Flag over her smart shop in the Village Green ... it will be because she's dressing California's First Lady these days ... Mrs. Brown waited until she could get down here long enough for fittings and bought eight new dresses with her favorite Balmain and Gattone labels from Fio Rito ... At the same time she planned her fall wardrobe ...

An interesting sidelight on Desert Circus activities, is that Hannah Holzman, who owns the Normandie Village here, is the author of an original story "Twins" which was purchased originally for Shirley Temple, Desert Circus Queen.

Mrs. Holzman says that the story, which was intended for the five-year-old prodigy, was never used and is still the property of 20th Century Fox.

Robbed Again

WEST LOS ANGELES — UPI — Wealthy Nina G. Anderton, 55-year-old widow robbed Wednesday night for the fifth time in 10 years, says she's getting "used to being tied up."

"I didn't let them bind me too tight," said the widow after three bandits had invaded her Bel-Air mansion and left with more than $30,000 in jewels, furs and cash.

But, lest someone might get the idea that she likes being robbed, she added, "I've had enough."

Three well-mannered gunmen with stockings over their faces, boudoir Mrs. Anderton and her guests, actress Selena Walters, and a gem appraiser E. L. L. Meyer Jr., in Wednesday night's holdup.

The three took their time in going over the house. They stole $15,500 worth of furs and an $8,500 three-strand pearl necklace belonging to the widow, a $3,000 ring from the actress, and $91 in cash, a $1,500 emerald ring and a $1,000 wrist watch from Meyer.

Hamburger With A Hot Dog Look

Hamburgers with a hot dog look make 1½ pounds ground beef go a long way. Combine beef with ¼ cup uncooked rolled oats, quick or old-fashioned, ¼ cup chopped onion, 2 teaspoons salt, ¼ teaspoon pepper and 1 cup tomato juice. Shape into 8 fingers, 1½ by 5 inches, and place on broiler rack 4 or 5 inches from heat source. Broil 8 minutes, turn and broil 5 minutes more, for medium doneness. Serve on hot dog buns.

"IT'S LIKE ITALY" commented Maestro Arturo Basile, guest conductor for Los Angeles Philharmonic's Sunday night concert here, when he admired the flowers at the Tennis Club, where he was entertained at luncheon. Here he is shown with Mrs. John F. Luccarelli, president of the sponsoring Playhouse Guild; Mrs. Austin McManus, luncheon hostess; and Mrs. John Gagliano, sister of Madelyn Rio Rito, who was there to interpret the Maestro's expressive Italian, and make him feel at home. COLORFUL COSTUMES made the Big Top Ball a glamorous affair. In the crowd were such costumes as these: Russ Wade as an Indian Chief; Sadie Hall, vice chairman of Circus Week; orchestra leader Fred Waring, lovely "Hindu" Kay Obergfeld, and Circus Girl Ginny Simms. (Anderson Photo)

Cast of 'Rollin' West' Will Include Parents and Faculty

"Rollin' West," a rollicking, fun-provoking presentation by the faculty and parents of the Palm Springs High School was the chief topic of discussion when the P-TA board held its regular monthly meeting Thursday, with Mrs. J. Allen Stone presiding. George Scholl presented the format for this program, to be presented April 17 at 8 p.m. at the High School, and while the show last year, entitled the P-TA Panics caused a sensation, it promises to be even better this year.

Mrs. Frank Hilton, program chairman, confirmed the invitation of Dr. H. B. Lyons as guest speaker for the P-TA meeting on May 7, at the High School. Dr. Lyons, a noted pediatrician, after many years of private practice and some military service, recently joined the faculty at Redlands University to work with Dr. Wm. Parker in counseling, teaching and float a bit of grated orange or lemon rind on top of soups.

Thompsons Expect Weekend Guests

Mr. and Mrs. Earl W. Thompson of 751 Prescott Drive, had as their weekend houseguests, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Conciglio of Arcadia. The Thompson's daughter, Barbara Ann who has been home for Easter vacation, and two of her school friends, Sally Taylor and Eleanor Loomis who drove down from Los Angeles Tuesday to surprise her, returned together Wednesday to Marymount School where they are enrolled.

Entertains for Club Directors

The executive board of Palm Springs Woman's Club finished up the tag ends of the business year in an interesting setting Wednesday, when Mrs. Lillian Sebelius opened her charming Fiesta Road home for the meeting and later served lunch to the group.

Objects d'art brought home by the hostess from her recent European trip provoked much interesting conversation. Mrs. Sebelius is well versed in the history and folklore of the Scandinavian countries in particular as her forbears came from the Northland.

Those participating in the enjoyable day, the afternoon of which was devoted to bridge were: Mrs. David Carlin, Herbert Burns, Vahan Alchian, Herbert Winkler, Glenn Watson, Chauncey Mahannah, William Froud, Francis Pruitt, Roy Burton, Charles German, Earle Arnold, Howard Matthews, Miss Hazel Gross, and the hostess, Mrs. Lillian Sebelius.

SECOND IN THE SERIES of new safety cartoons used by the Palm Springs Unified School District in buses and classrooms. The cartoon and slogan "When using the crosswalk be doubly alert during the first few steps." The preparation and use of the slogans are under the sponsorship of the Palm Springs District and Palm Springs Safety Council.

Shopping Center Apartment Area Sale Reported

A 7½-acre chunk of Village land—located behind the Pueblo Hotel here—has been purchased by two prominent San Jose businessmen for a price reported at $150,000, it was learned here today.

Frank Di Napoli, owner of Sun-garden Packing Co., and Joseph Perucci, owner of Mayfair Packing Co., jointly purchased the land for use as a shopping center and apartment development.

Di Napoli and Perucci, both property owners here for many years, announced the deal for the land through Peter B. Sheptenko, Village realtor, who handled the negotiations for both the buyers and for Dr. John Costello, who owned the property.

Sheptenko will manage the property following completion of the development, he said. The property adjoins present business frontage now owned by the pair at North Palm Canyon Drive and Via Escuela.

Roe Shoe Co. Joins Indio-Oasis Shopping Center

INDIO — A spanking new, black and white building housing the Roe Shoe Company is the latest addition to the Indio-Oasis Shopping Center which will eventually command a 160 square foot "shopper's paradise."

The Roe shoe building, constructed at a cost of $175,000, houses a 25-ton air conditioner, island showcases, interior-exterior planters, rear merchandising entrance and intercom system between four stockrooms and the main store. FM music pours into the store continuously.

Roe's, a member of a national chain comprising some 146 stores in 11 states, stocks more than 21,000 pairs of shoes in a wide variety of prices and styles.

The Indio-Oasis Shopping Center, leased exclusively by F. J. Maiter and Company of Los Angeles and Indio, have also procured the northeast corner of Oasis and Bliss and will develop it as a new branch for Security First National Bank.

Among other new buildings planned for the center is a huge store for the Olsen Furniture Co. of Riverside. The furniture firm, which has been in business in Riverside for more than 40 years, sought out the Indio outlet after surveying rapid growth in the Coachella Valley area.

NEWEST ADDITION to the Indio-Oasis Shopping Center is the Roe Shoe Co., a chain which has operated for 50 years selling popular priced shoes in principal West Coast cities. Above are Manager Waver Bateman and Assistant Manager Julio Valenzuela inspecting items of stock. (Willis Photo)

Chuckwagon Dinner Hosted By Skoglunds

PALM DESERT — Traditional red and white checked table linen provided the western decor for the chuckwagon dinner hosted at El Dorado Palms Estates by Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Skoglund of Minneapolis.

With flood-lights illuminating the towering palms, more than 90 guests enjoyed the dinner entered under desert stars by Jack Boyer.

Ace Spriggins with his western orchestra and Johnny and Tami Boyle provided entertainment for the affair which also honored the board members of the North American Life and Casualty Co., Minneapolis of which Mr. Skoglund is president.

Guests included board members and their wives, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Sanburg, C. J. Borgard, Roy Gesner, James Schofield and Max Weby. Other Minnesota guests were Mr. and Mrs. William McGoldrick, John Moffett and Grady Clark, from Winnipeg, Canada, were Mr. and Mrs. Ted Peterson, and from Portland, Ore., Mr. and Mrs. Al Gunderson. The immediate vicinity was represented by Miss Edith Eddy Ward and her mother, Mrs. "Bunny" Ward, and Mines and Mrs. Willard Parker, Bob Kenaston, John Campbell, Chester Newmiller, Willis Allen and many others.

Montgomerys Entertains Family

PALM DESERT — Houseguests of Mr. and Mrs. Val Montgomery at their home on San Luis Rey Street, were their son and family from Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. Val Montgomery, Jr., and Denise and Stephen.

Mr. Montgomery, Sr., is the former owner of Montgomery Hardware in Los Angeles.

Your Car And The Law

DUE PROCESS

Reckless drivers who are being called in for hearings before driver improvement analysts of the Department of Motor Vehicles, many of whom probably will have their licenses suspended, will be accorded full "due process of law."

These drivers will have 14 days in which to appear for hearings, which are being set up in the individual's county of residence, at the point closest to his home.

ON THE DAY and hour which has been set for the hearing, the summoned driver will sit down with the analyst, and together they will review the record.

After the hearing, the analyst will make his recommendation which, under DMV's new violator program, probably will be for suspension of the driver's license, if his violation count for the last 12 months has been four or more.

The field analyst's recommendation then goes to Sacramento headquarters of the department, where it will be reviewed by still other driver improvement analysts. The reason for this is obvious. The review is a kind of precaution against any possible bias that might have influenced the original analyst's decision.

ANALYSTS ARE human. They are subject to the same human frailties, the same emotions as you and I. The Department of Motor Vehicles realizes that there is always the possibility of a clash of personalities in any face-to-face discussion of a man's problem.

So in all fairness to the offending driver, DMV studies very carefully its field analyst's reports of hearings, and weighs their recommendations before actually instituting suspension action against a person.

After an analyst's recommendation is accepted, an order is written and mailed to the offending driver, informing him that his driving privilege has been suspended, effective as of a certain given date.

The only appeal from such an order of suspension is through the courts.

That's the way the law is written.

UR Opera Workshop Sets Spring Production Dates

The University of Redlands Opera Workshop will present as its spring production, the first acts of two classic operas, "Fidelio" by Beethoven and "The Abduction from the Seraglio" by Mozart on Tuesday, April 14, and Friday, April 17.

Curtain time for the operas will be at 8:15 p.m. with Westchorn Hall auditorium as the setting.

LARRA BROWNING Henderson, associate professor of voice and director of the university's opera workshop, announced two casts for "Fidelio." On April 14, the production will feature Jean Fayard as Marcelline; Warren Martin as Jaquino; Art Palmer as Rocco; and Joan Ford as Fidelio.

"Fidelio" on April 17 will be presented with Lynne Steward as Marcelline; Ervin Sapp as Jaquino; Betty June Hooten in the title role and Palmer, again, as Rocco.

"THE ABDUCTION OF SERAGLIO" will cast, both dates, Ann Thomas as Constanze; Norman Baffrey as Belmonte; Anthony Thompson as Petrillo; Barry Martin as Osonin; and as the Janissaries (guards) Susan Stice, Carol Pearce, Ruth Gifford, Nelda Watson, Jeanne Ferguson, Russell Warner, Norman Yetman, Alan Ritchie, and Michael Young.

Tickets may be obtained prior to performance dates by contacting the Public Relations Office at the University of Redlands and Gair's Department Store. Tickets will also be sold at the box office. Admission price for adults is one dollar and 50 cents for children.

Walkers Visit In Las Vegas

PALM DESERT — Mr. and Mrs. Donald Walker of Chicory Street have returned from a 10 day business and pleasure trip to Las Vegas, where they visited friends, Mr. and Mrs. Leo English.

Residents of Palm Desert for the last two years, the Walkers also own a home in Las Vegas.

Only about 30 tons are mined each year in the platinum group of metals — platinum, palladium, rhodium, ruthenium, iridium and osmium. This compares with 1,200 tons of gold and 7,000 tons of silver annually.

Library Gives Tips for the Armchair Traveler

By ALICE BRUCKNER
If you have ever dreamed of the impossible, a trip to far-distant Africa, don't eat your heart out in frustration. Travel down to Welwood Murray Memorial Library, pick up a copy of HOLIDAY magazine for April — and you're off.

Africa! One of the most fascinating and least known regions in the world, it is examined and explained in this issue by a group of famous writers, all with first-hand knowledge of the dark continent and its peoples.

AN ARTICLE BY Laurens van der Post, author of "THE LOST WORLD OF THE KALAHARI," gives a vivid description of the geography and animal life of his native country. John Gunther, well known for "INSIDE AFRICA TO-DAY" and other volumes, writes of the history of this mysterious land. Novelist Paul Bowles pictures the life of its Arab population and gifted Romaine Gary portrays the Colonial African of the past and of the present. Nadine Gordimer, life-long resident of South Africa, explores the explosive policy of apartheid — which is also the subject of her latest novel, "A WORLD OF STRANGERS."

THIS BOOK HAS an intriguing promise, dealing as it does with the revolt in reverse of a young Englishman, Tobias Hood, raised by earnestly liberal parents, who rebels against involvement in causes. He arrives in Johannesburg, South Africa, determined to enjoy life in this stronghold of the privileged.

At first the rigidly enforced separation of the world of the whites from that of the coloreds and the natives seems what he wants, especially after he falls in love with Cecil, beautiful product of this sheltered atmosphere. Through an almost accidental friendship with an intelligent, disillusioned non-conforming young native, Steven Sitole, Toby gradually realizes that the inflexible barriers between their worlds imprison him as well as Steven.

DAAPHNE ROOKE'S novels are laid in earlier periods in Africa. MITTEE'S background is the Boer War, and the life of the hardy, sometimes brutal pioneer Africans. The heroine, Mittee, finally leaves her people for an Englishman who looks upon the Kaffirs (natives) with a more compassionate eye. RATOONS presents some aspects of the life of still another race in Africa, the Hindus, during the period of the first World War.

Even mystery fans can enjoy their favorite reading against an African background. Mollie Hamilton's suspenseful "LATER THAN YOU THINK" is laid in Kenya during the tense times after the Mau-Mau uprisings. However, any one seriously contemplating a trip to Africa will find the new Fielding's Guide invaluable. Climate, currency, etc., are dealt with thoroughly. Whether you go to Africa in fact or in fancy, get your information at Welwood Murray Memorial Library.
